CONTENTS

MARCH/APRIL 2008

148

Editorial collective
David Cunningham, Howard Feather, Peter Hallward, Esther Leslie, Stewart Martin, Kaye Mitchell, Mark Neocleous, Peter Osborne, Stella Sandford

Contributors
Jon Beasley-Murray is Assistant Professor of Spanish at the University of British Columbia. He was co-editor of the 2001 special issue of Angelaki, Subaltern Affect.

Georges Canguilhem (1904–1995) taught at the universities of Strasbourg and Paris, and specialized in the philosophy and history of science. His many publications include The Normal and the Pathological (1943) and La Formation du concept de réflexe aux XVII et XVIII siècles (1955).

Andrew Fisher is an artist and lecturer in the Department of Visual Cultures, Goldsmiths, University of London.

Christian Kerslake is a research fellow in the Centre for Research in Modern European Philosophy, Middlesex University, currently working on the AHRC-funded project ‘Concept and Form: The Cahiers pour l’analyse and Contemporary French Thought’. He is the author of Deleuze and the Unconscious (Continuum, 2007).

COMMENTARY

Fear of Heights: Bolivia’s Constituent Process
Jon Beasley-Murray ........................................................................................................ 2

ARTICLES

The Brain and Thought
Georges Canguilhem ........................................................................................................ 7

Beyond Barthes: Rethinking the Phenomenology of Photography
Andrew Fisher ................................................................................................................ 19

Grounding Deleuze
Christian Kerslake ....................................................................................................... 30

REVIEWS

Gerald Raunig, Art and Revolution: Transversal Activism in the Long Twentieth Century
Stephen Zepke .............................................................................................................. 37

Yannis Stavrakakis, The Lacanian Left
Philip Derbyshire .......................................................................................................... 41

Christine Battersby, The Sublime, Terror and Human Difference
Kimberley Hutchings ........................................................................................................ 43

Jacques Bidet, Exploring Marx’s ‘Capital’: Philosophical, Economic and Political Dimensions
John Milios ..................................................................................................................... 46

John Rawls, Lectures on the History of Political Philosophy
Sean Sayers .................................................................................................................... 49

OBITUARY

Finn Bowring .............................................................................................................. 52